

CLAY EXPLOITATION, BERKOVIĆI

Project title	Construction of the clay exploitation facility in the area of Kalina
Sector	Natural resources
Location	Kalina, Territory of Berkovići municipality, RS
Project status	Prepared feasibility study
Project description	On the outskirts of Berkovići, in the Kalina region, large clay reserves have been discovered that occupies an area of 20 km². Based on the detailed geological research that covers 30 ha, the experts have established that the clay from Kalina is of excellent quality and that it is suitable for the production of all types of products from bricks, to ceramics. The realization of the project envisages two phases: First phase - study and drafting of project documentation Second phase - construction of the facility for clay exploitation at Kaline The previous study showed that the market for this high quality clay brick would be ensured.
Estimated total investment cost	2.000.000 KM app. 1.02 million EUR
Supporting information available	For additional information about the project please contact FIPA Agency either on the fipa@fipa.gov.ba or contact phone +387 33 278 080.