

CATTLE PER “COW-CALF” SYSTEM, TOMISLAVGRAD AND KUPRES

Project title	Expanding the capacity of cattle per “cow-calf” system
Sector	AgricultureY
Location	Municipality of Tomislavgrad and Kupres
Location description	Territory of Tomislavgrad and Kupres municipalities (south-western Bosnia and Herzegovina - field of Kupres and Duvanjsko field with spacious surrounding mountain pastures) has all acceptable characteristics and potential for success in this breeding, which definitely confirmed successfully implemented projects in his area, one of which is farm business Percinovic Ltd. Tomislavgrad who has 1,850 breeds Angus in breeding.
Company description	Percinovic Ltd. Company Tomislavgrad has been founded in 2006. with the ownership structure Slaven Papic 100 %. The activity is the breeding of cattle per cow calf system, mostly Red Angus breed. Currently the company activity of breeding cattle for meat production is performed at two locations: Eminovo selo (village) -Tomislavgrad, Pakline - Tomislavgrad and Vukovsko, Zvirnjaca - Kupres. The company has 10 permanent employees and 15 seasonal employees and it is the largest breeder of cattle per cow-calf system on the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina and broader. Experience, quality animals, equipment, personnel and agriculture areas provide the company significant benefits and opportunities in comparison with other companies in the same activities.
Project status	Feasibility study completed
Project description	The increase in production capacity, respectively expansion of existing manufacturing by purchasing additional 10, 000 animals, building the necessary facilities and purchasing equipment. Increase of income with the strategy of export and exploitation of the existing natural resources suitable for this activity. Employment of new people, as well as the production of ecologically pure food.
Estimated total investment cost	25,500,000 EUR

FIPA INVESTMENT PROJECT PROFILE

Form of cooperation with foreign partner	Joint venture There is the planned investment in the purchase of cattle 17,895,000 EUR and the construction of buildings, purchase of equipment and food for the first year of breeding 7,605,000 EUR
Supporting information available	For additional information about this project, please contact FIPA either by e-mail: fipa@fipa.gov.ba or phone number: +387 33 278 080.